Description

Welcome to 156 W. Morning Glory, located in a family friendly neighborhood walkable to Acme, MudHen Brewing Company, Mulligan's Shore Grill, Wawa, the bay, Boardwalk, and of course, the beach! Our home has everything you need for an unforgettable vacation.

Enter into the inviting foyer, where you can drop your keys and kick off your flip flops. On the first level, you'll find four bedrooms with three queen beds and twin bunk beds, all of which are outfitted with Lilly Pulitzer bedding, a full bath with bathtub, and the laundry room with a full-size washer and dryer. Continue to the second level where you'll find a spacious and open living area. The kitchen has brand new quartz countertops and all new appliances. It's equipped with everything you need, whether cooking in or ordering out. The dining room seats 8-10 people, with three additional seats available at the kitchen bar. The living room is perfect for enjoying a cup of coffee, watching a movie, or playing board games. Off this living area is access to the deck with an inviting and comfortable lounge area, perfect for enjoying happy hour after a day at the beach. The deck also includes a gas grill, available for use during your vacation. Between the kitchen and master bedroom you'll find a fully renovated half bath with new vanity and quartz countertops. Finally, the spacious master bedroom includes a Pottery Barn bed and Casper mattress to help you recharge after long days at the beach and a private balcony for when you want some quiet time.

In the garage, you'll find an extra refrigerator, beach chairs, umbrellas, and toys. For the walk to the beach, we've provided the Phoenix Beach Buggy that will carry everything your family may need. We also have Bucket Ball (perfect for beach or the fenced back yard) and Tiki Toss for your enjoyment.

There are two off-street parking spaces, with additional street parking typically available.

Extras: Every Friday night the city performs a fireworks extravaganza.
